

Wonderland Poetry Slam Funsheet

Have fun doing these challenges after you listen to Dorktales
Storytime's episode on the Wonderland Poetry Slam!

Circle the five things that helped save the Mad Hatter's Poetry Slam.

A spoonful of honey

A giant fan that blew away the pollen

Pulling the hat over his face

Letting the Bee sing first

A magic spell

Changing the poem after the sneeze

Jonathan's idea to follow the bee

The Cheshire Cat writing the poem

Circle the actions that show how Jonathan, Redge, and the Mad Hatter used FLEXIBLE THINKING.

Put the Mad Hatter's hat over his face.

Give up because nothing is working.

Walk away from the Poetry Slam.

Follow the bee to see if it can help.

Keep blaming the flowers.

Ask the Bee if it would trade some honey.

Invite the Bee to perform at the Poetry Slam.

Change the poem after sneezing.

Refuse to listen to anyone else's ideas.

Mad Hatter's Silly Sneezes

The Mad Hatter says some very funny sneeze words in this story! Read them out loud and see which one makes you laugh the most.

CHOOO-BEE-DOOOO-FLEW-BEE-DOO-BEE-DOO!

GALA-LA-LA-LA-LA-LA!

GAGA POOF!

FLAA-BAAH-DEE-DEE-DOO!

KAFLE WEEEE!

NOW IT'S YOUR TURN!

Imagine you are entering the Wonderland Poetry Slam. Create three funny sneeze words of your own.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Use one of your silly sneeze words in a poem.

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
I started to sneeze and shouted,
