

REDGE 'S MARVELOUS MASTERPIECE

– CONVERSATION STARTERS –

Listen to the episode: <https://ionincharacter.com/redges-marvelous-masterpiece/>

The questions on the next page are designed to encourage deep thinking, reflection and open-ended discussions about "Redge's Marvelous Masterpiece" themes.

Reflecting on Individuality:

- Redge had a hard time choosing just one thing to paint that represents him.
- What are some things that make you unique?
- If you had to choose one, what would it be?

Exploring Friendship:

- Redge asked his friends for ideas when he was stuck.
- Who would you go to for help or ideas when you're facing a challenge, and why?

Creative Problem-Solving:

- When Redge had trouble with the paint tube, he found a creative solution.
- Can you think of a time when you faced a problem and came up with a creative way to solve it?

Expressing Emotions through Art:

- Honey B. Bearton talked about expressing emotions through art.
- Can you think of a color or type of art that would represent how you're feeling right now?

Discovering Passions:

- Wabbitson chose to paint a journal and magnifying glass because he loves solving cases.
- What's something you're passionate about, and how would you represent it in a painting?

The Power of Friendship:

- How did Redge's friends help him come up with an idea for his painting?
- Why do you think it's important to have friends who support and help each other?

Learning from Challenges:

- What do you think Redge learned from his experience in the art class, especially when he had to choose what to paint?
- How can challenges help us learn and grow?

Favorite Moments from the Episode:

- What was your favorite part of the episode, and why did you like it?
- How did it make you feel?

Applying Lessons in Real Life:

- If you took an art class like Redge, what would you want to paint that represents you?
- How would you approach the assignment?