Message for Grownups:

Podcasts are a screen-free way to build listening skills, spark curiosity, and make learning fun, anytime, anywhere. The Kooky Spooky Countdown turns active listening into a game, giving kids a fun goal to work toward and a real sense of accomplishment.

IMPORTANT: These episodes are meant to be kid-friendly spooky fun. Still, every child handles “scary” differently. If one story feels like too much, just mark it off on the tracker and move on to the next. Our goal is for every participant to enjoy a positive, playful experience.

When your child finishes any or all of the challenge:

- Snap a photo of their completed tracking sheet and email it to: dorktalesstorytime@gmail.com or go to the Kooky Spooky challenge page and upload through our submission form: <https://jonincharacter.com/kooky-spooky-countdown/>
- We'll email an official certificate, and
- For those who finish the challenge, we'll send downloadable links to special video messages from: Adam Gidwitz (Grimm Grimmer Grimmest), Elise Parisian (Unspookable), and Jonathan and Redge (Dorktales Storytime)
- A set of printable Kooky Spooky Award Cards.
